GEORGIA CODE § 21-2-230.	The burden shall be on the elector making the challenge to prove that the person being challenged is not qualified to remain on the list of electors. GEORGIA CODE § 21-2-229. The qualifications for registration are: (a) No person shall vote in any primary or election held in this state unless such person shall be: (1) Registered as an elector in the manner prescribed by law; (2) A citizen of this state and of the United States; (3) At least 18 years of age; (4) A resident of this state and of the county or municipality in which he or she seeks to vote; and (5) Possessed of all other qualifications prescribed by law. (b) In addition to the qualifications in subsection (a) of this Code section, no person who has been judicially determined to be mentally incompetent may register, remain registered, or vote unless the disability has been removed. Id. § 21-2-216.	Elector challenges must be in writing and specify distinctly the grounds of such challenge. GEORGIA CODE § 21-2-230(a). Upon the filing of such challenge, the board of registrars shall immediately consider such challenge and determine whether probable cause exists to sustain such challenge. If the registrars do not find probable cause, the challenge shall be denied. If the registrars find probable cause, the registrars shall notify the poll officers of the challenged elector's precinct or, if the challenged elector voted by absentee ballot, notify the poll officers at the absentee ballot precinct and, if practical, notify the challenged elector and afford such elector an opportunity to answer. Id. § 21-2-230(b). If the challenged elector appears at the polling place to vote, such elector shall be given the opportunity to appear before the registrars and answer the grounds of the challenge. Id. § 21-2-230(c). If the challenged elector cast an absentee ballot and it is not practical to conduct a hearing prior to the close of the polls and the challenge is based upon grounds other than the qualifications of the elector to remain on the list of electors, the absentee ballot shall be treated as a challenged ballot pursuant to subsection (e) of Code Section 21-2- 386. No further action by the registrars shall be required. Id. § 21-2-230(e). If the challenged elector cast an absentee ballot and the challenge is based upon grounds that the challenged elector is not qualified to remain on the list of electors, the board of registrars shall proceed to conduct a hearing on the challenge on an expedited basis prior to the certification of the consolidated returns of the election by the election superintendent. The election superintendent shall not certify such consolidated returns until such hearing is complete and the registrars have rendered their decision on the challenge. If the registrars deny the challenge, the superintendent shall proceed to certify the consolidated returns. If the registrars uphold the challenge, the name of the challenged elector shall be removed from the list of electors and the ballot of the challenged elector shall be rejected and not counted and, if necessary, the returns shall be adjusted to remove any votes cast by such elector. 			(b) In cases where the clerk rules on a challenge, prior to election day, or refuses to register an applicant, or refuses to change the register under Section 11-22 ("Changing register; correction of errors"), the person ruled against may appeal from the ruling to the board of registration of the person's county. The appeal shall be brought within ten days of service of the adverse decision. Service of the decision shall be made personally or by registered mail, which shall be deemed complete upon deposit in the mails, postage prepaid, and addressed to the aggrieved person's last known address. If an appeal from a decision on a challenge prior to election day is brought, both the challenger and the challenged voter may be parties to the appeal. (c) If the appeal is sustained, the board shall immediately certify that finding to the clerk, who shall thereupon alter the register to correspond to the findings of the board, and when necessary, the clerk shall notify the precinct officials of the change in the register. Id. § 11-26.

	or suspect that a person is not a qualified elector. WIS. STAT. § 6.925	(1) The elector must be a U.S. citizen, at least 18 years of age, who has resided in an election district or ward for 28 consecutive days before any election where the citizen offers to vote. (2) Any U.S. citizen who is at least 18 years of age who moved within the state later than 28 days before an election shall vote at his or her previous ward or election district if the person is otherwise qualified. If the elector can comply with the 28-day residence requirement at the new address or is otherwise qualified, he or she may vote in the new ward or election district. WIS. STAT. § 6.02 Disqualifications of electors: (1)(a): Any person who is incapable of understanding the objective of the elective process or who is under guardianship, unless the court has determined that the person is competent to exercise the right to vote. No person may be denied the right to register or vote by reason of alleged incapable understanding unless the person has been adjudicated incompetent in the state. (1)(b): Any person convicted of treason, felony or bribery, unless the person's right to vote is restored through a pardon or under s. 304.078 (3). (2) No person shall be allowed to vote in any election in which the person has made or become interested, directly or indirectly, in any bet or wager depending upon the result of the election. WIS. STAT. § 6.03	The election official will only make you respond to the questions pertaining to the challenger's specific concerns about your eligibility. If you refuse to take the oath, if you refuse to answer the questions fully, or if you answer that you are not eligible, you will not be allowed to vote. If you take the oath and answer all the questions to swear that you are an eligible voter, you will be given a ballot. The election official will put an identifying number on the outside of your ballot. You will be able to vote and your vote will be counted. After the election, the municipality will investigate the challenge. If you lose the challenge because you were not eligible to vote, your ballot will be withdrawn and not counted. However, if you win the challenge, your vote will continue to be counted. WIS. STAT. §§ 6.94-6.95 The vote of any absent elector may be challenged for cause and the inspectors of election shall have all the power and authority given them to hear and determine the legality of the ballot the same as if the ballot had been voted in person. In municipalities where absentee ballots are canvassed under section 7.52, the vote of an absentee elector may be challenged as provided in section 7.52(5). Id. § 6.93.

WYO. STAT. ANN. § 22-15-106. If a person offering to vote is challenged, and the challenge is not resolved in accordance with Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 22-15-106, an election judge shall offer the voter a ballot clearly marked "provisional" and which cannot be automatically tabulated. A person challenged on any ground may vote by provisional ballot, if he subscribes this oath in writing before a judge of election: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am the person I represent myself to be and that I am a qualified elector entitled to vote in this precinct at this election and that this is the only ballot I have or will vote in this election." The oath required by this section shall be printed on the provisional ballot envelope. A challenged voter may present information and documentation of his eligibility to register at the election or to vote to the county clerk until the close of business on the day following the election. Any information presented shall be considered by the canvassing board in determining the voter's eligibility to register at the election or to vote and whether to open and count his provisional ballot. The provisional ballot shall be counted only after the voter has, by presenting documentation required under this code to the county clerk, established he had previously registered and is a qualified elector or he was eligible to register at the election and is a qualified elector. Id. § 22-15-105.
